

LONDON

Our trip started in London where we first explored the city by ourselves. We saw all of London's finest: Big Ben, the Houses of Parliament, the Tower of London, the London Eye, Hyde Park, Trafalgar Square and Covent Garden.

THE SUPREME COURT

On our second day in London, we visited the Supreme Court, where we had the pleasure and honour of meeting Lord Lloyd Jones. We are grateful for his time and all the knowledge he shared with us. After the meeting, we had a guided tour of the Supreme Court, during which we had the chance to sit in Lord and Lady Justices' chairs. To conclude our visit to the Supreme Court, we had the opportunity to listen in to the proceedings before the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council.

INNER TEMPLE

After visiting the Supreme Court, we headed to the Honourable Society of the Inner Temple, one of the four London Inns of Court, where we met with Sub-Treasurer Greg Dorey. He gave us a detailed and very interesting guided tour of the whole Inner Temple complex, including the historic Temple Church.

CAMBRIDGE

We spent three sunny days in Cambridge where we had the pleasure of being hosted by Corpus Christi College. We also had the opportunity to visit an interesting labour law lecture by Prof. Catherine Barnard after which she kindly gave us a guided tour of Trinity College where she gave us valuable insight into the college system in Cambridge and the history behind the establishment of Trinity College.

The next day we were welcomed by Prof. Jonathan Morgan, with whom we had a chat about our future careers over tea and coffee. Afterwards, he proceeded to give us a tour of Corpus Christi College where we discovered many interesting facts about its history. Later that day we visited King's College by ourselves, including Cambridge's most famous landmark, the impressive King's College Chapel.

THANK YOU TO EVERYONE WHO FOLLOWED US ON THIS JOURNEY

We are truly grateful for the opportunity to compete at the CEEMC 2024 and for the awards received from the British Law Centre and the University of Cambridge.

We were honoured to have been given such a warm welcome by everyone on this trip, especially Lord Lloyd Jones, Greg Dorey, Prof. Catherine Barnard and Prof. Johnathan Morgan, who all made the trip a truly unforgettable experience and a great learning opportunity.

A special thank you also goes to Steve Terret, for organising the trip and supporting us before and during our travels. He ensured the trip went by as smoothly as possible and that we never ran out of ideas about where to go and what to do next.

To whoever is deliberating on participating in the CEEMC in the following years, for us, it has been an enriching experience as it provides an opportunity to learn and grow. It also serves as a great stepping stone in your future academic and career endeavours. Therefore, we highly recommend you to participate in this moot competition.
